65 W. I. Members Present

L.B. Women's Institutes Hold Conference, Barons

The Little Bow Constituency of the Alberta Women's Institute held their 33rd annual conference in Barons on Friday, June 29, in the community hall with 65 members present and the Barons Women's Institute as the hostess branch.

The conference convened at 10 a.m. with Mrs. A. W. Maisey, the Constituency Convener, presiding and Mrs. W. A. Anderson as secretary.

Mrs. Maisey welcomed Mrs. A. B. McGorman of Penhold, president of the A.W.I., and Mrs. A. McIlroy of Shaunessy, Director of District No. 4, each taking their place on the platform. Corsages were presented to Mrs. McGorman and Mrs. McIlroy, Mrs. Maisey and Mrs. Anderson.

The conference opened with the singing of O Canada, the Flag Salute and creed. Mrs. Volsey of Champion gave the Devotional, followed by a welcome by Mrs. Hobbs of Barons, replied to by Mrs. W. E. Roebuck of Thigh Hill W.I. The minutes of the 1950 conference were adopted and read and the financial statement was read.

Reports from the following conveners were given: Publicity by Mrs. Mainland of Thigh Hill; Social service by Mrs. Kotkas, Barons; Agriculture and Canadian Industries by Mrs. Patterson of Champion; Social Welfare by Mrs. Lennison of Good Deeds W.I.; Home Economics by Mrs. Little of Champion W.I.; Citizenship by Mrs. McGormans of Good Deeds W.I.; Girls' Club by Mrs. McLeod of Champion; Handicraft by Mrs. Shearer of Barons W.I.

It was passed by the conference to drop the Publicity and Social Service conveners and henceforth each branch secretary will bring in her report at the conference. Social Welfare will be known as Health and Education.

Mrs. Thompson, of Lethbridge, the editor of Home and Country, was introduced and she wished the conference every success in the deliberations made. Mrs. Reynolds, a past district director, also was introduced.

Mrs. Maisey read her constituency convener's report in which she thanked every branch for their assistance in the Tuberculosis and Bang's Disease Survey in last year's project.

A moment's silence for departed members was recognized.

Miss Ware seconded all reports given during the morning session.

Mrs. McGorman addressed the conference, outlining the Associated Country Women of the world and the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, how they were organized and their work.

The A.C.W.W. is a world-wide, non-governmental organization with 21 different countries represented at their conference held every three years. The last conference was in Copenhagen, Denmark in Sept. 1950 with Mrs. McGorman, the provincial president, head of her delegation as each province belongs to the A.C.W.W. as a constituency society. The membership of the A.C.W.W. is made of constituent societies and contributing members, the latter are women who are interested in W.I. work and of country women, but have no vote at the conference. The aim of the A.C.W.W. is to promote and maintain friendly and helpful relations between country women and homemakers' organizations of all nations. The A.C.W.W. conference will be held in Eastern Canada in 1953 and 1500 visitors from other countries are expected to attend.

The F.W.I.C. is a national organization made up of two delegates from each province to learn the activities and different problems of each province. The President of the F.W.I.C. is usually the head delegate to the A.C.W.W.

After dinner Mrs. McGorman continued her address, urging the study of the United Nations and what it means. She pointed out the obligations to the A.W.I. were dues, Pennies for Friendship (for A.C.W.W. fund) and building up the A.W.I. project fund. She urged her audience to listen to the W.I. radio broadcasts as Alberta was the only province in Canada that was allowed time over the air to give reports from the branches.

Miss Mary Smart, district Home Economist for Lethbridge, judged the handicraft display and spoke briefly on the same. She congratulated the branches on the quality of the work but urged more work to be displayed at the conference.

Mrs. McIlroy then addressed the conference giving points on how to be a good W.I. member, some being good attendance, punctuality, pay close attention and take part in the meetings, abide by the vote, be prepared to take office, be tolerant of others' mistakes, be helpful, study blue book and year book. Pointers for a good branch: Pay dues, do not overemphasize money, give everyone a chance at office, plan program, have simple lunches, and attend conferences. She urged for more W.I. songs and choirs and suggested scrapbooks be compiled, also Canadian Association Consumers be studied at meetings. It was decided to increase the Constituency Conveners' money ten cents per member in addition to the present eight dollars. Project for coming year for each branch to raise funds (no objective set) for the A.C.W.W. fund.

Nominating committee of Mrs. Volsey of Champion, Mrs. Erickson of Thigh Hill, Mrs. Andrews of Barons appointed Mrs. Maisey as Constituency Convener, Miss Ware as Agriculture and Canadian Industries convener and Mrs. W. E. Roebuck as Citizenship Convener for the next two years.

Mrs. McKay read the courtesy report.

Next conference will be held in Vulcan in 1952.

Conference closed with singing of God Save The King. A lovely lunch was served by the Barons Women's Institute.

Bozarth Entries Are Winners At Horse Show

W. F. Bozarth of Champion is another farmer whose interest is raising fine horses.

At the Lethbridge Exhibition Mr. Bozarth entered three yearling fillies of the American Saddle Horse breed and the three fillies were awarded first, second and third prizes in their class.

In the American Saddle Horse class of three entries, get of one sire, the three fillies won second prize.

Eight Teams Entered

Annual Baseball Tournament At Champion July 18-19-20

Announcement is made in this issue of the holding of the fifth annual Champion Lions' baseball tournament at Champion, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 18-19-20.

This popular event, with eight teams competing for $660.00 in prize money, always attracts a large crowd and provides good entertainment.

Teams entered this year are Vulcan, Champion, Stavely, Carmangay, Picture Butte, Vauxhall, Daley Creek and Claresholm.

Following the final game of the tournament, the evening of July 20, a big dance will be held in the Champion Community Hall.

Farewell Honors Mr. and Mrs. Chell

Thursday evening, June 28, was the occasion of a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Chell on behalf of the parish of St. Aldhelm's, held in the church basement. The evening was spent in fellowship and games.

After refreshments, Rev. E. A. Justice presented the couple with a carving set, with the best wishes of all the parish. He mentioned their long years of willing co-operation in the community and church life particularly, where they both played a very active part and from which they will be badly missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Chell fittingly replied, stating the pleasure of their association with the church and the people of Vulcan in the years they spent here.

Tent City in Korea Where U.N. Quarters Its Prisoners of War

Nearly 150,000 prisoners of war from the Chinese and North Korean Communist armies are held by the United Nations forces in huge tent compounds like the one shown at left above. The camps are kept clean and in order by the prisoners themselves. At right, a U. S. Army nurse, Captain Virginia Gillespie, of Mentone, Cal., aided by a captured Korean physician, treats a young prisoner who suffered a leg wound. Prisoners who are ill are treated in the world's largest hospital, which has 10,000 beds. The United Command reports that the prisoners range in age from 15 to 60 years.

Young Athlete Does Well At Highland Games

Entering in the Highland Games at Edmonton for the first time, David Mitchell, 18-year-old Vulcan student, made a very fine showing in the competitions in his age group, winning one first prize, two seconds and a third.

Competing in the under 19 class the young athlete placed first in the shot put event, second in the running broad jump, second in the high jump and third in the 100 yard dash.

The Highland Games were held at Edmonton on July 2 and David was accompanied to the capital city by his father, John Mitchell.

Church School Well Attended

A successful Kindergarten school closed Friday at the Church of Christ study when the mothers gathered for tea. Average attendance was 19 and the children presented a program for their mothers.

A demonstration program will be given this Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the Church of Christ of the work done by the older boys and girls in Daily Vacation Bible School.

Four Classes Start This Week

Free Swimming Classes Start At Memorial Pool

Announcement is made in this issue that swimming classes at the Memorial Pool will commence on July 5, and entries from all wishing to learn to swim or to improve their swimming ability are invited.

Four classes will be held—Junior, Intermediate, Senior and Beginners—with the respective instructors being Mervin Brooks, Jerry LaRoche, Dale French and Don Whiteman.

The following times for classes have been arranged: Women, 9.30 to 10.30 a.m.; beginners, 10.30 to 11 a.m.; juniors 11 to 11.30 a.m.; intermediates, 7 to 7.30 p.m.; seniors, 7.30 to 8 p.m.

Sponsored by the Vulcan Lions Club, the swimming classes are free to all. A class of 15 has already been entered from Carmangay and district as well as town residents are urged to take advantage of the expert swimming instruction available.

"Golden Banner" Again Winner At Lethbridge

Leon Bateman's Palomino stallion "Golden Banner" again took a major share of prizes in the Palomino classes at the Lethbridge Exhibition this year, winning three firsts, one second and one third prize.

"Banner" placed first in the class for stallions, 3 years or over, parade or pleasure type (on halter); first in the Open Class, parade or pleasure type (shown under saddle); the first prize in the Riding Pairs class, when the other stallion shown by Mr. Bateman was Banner's colt.

"Golden Banner" took second prize in the working stock horse, any sex, palomino class, and third prize as best colored palomino in the show.

This makes a total of 20 prizes that Mr. Bateman's outstanding stallion has won in Lethbridge.

You see and hear Trio Lyrique, Marti Kenny, Toronto Symphony, Happy Gang, as well as many forums, religious programmes, boogie and old-time performers.

For further information about booking these films telephone or contact Rev. Rolis or V. A. Coleman. The use of these films is desired by the Vulcan Area Film Council. If further use is not made Vulcan will soon lose the service offered by the National Film Board.

Will Be Instructor At Innisfail Pool

One of the Vulcan boys who have developed into expert swimming instructors through the Red Cross swimming program, Donald Mitchell has accepted summer employment at the Innisfail pool.

He is one of the group of six boys who have received special instruction both locally and at provincial centres under the Red Cross swimming and water safety program and who have largely been responsible for the success of the swimming classes conducted at the local Memorial Swimming Pool every season.

A student of the Vulcan high school, Donald will be at Innisfail for about two months and will organize and conduct swimming classes in the Central Alberta town.

The Weather

Warm weather prevailed on Monday and Tuesday of this week, but skies were cloudy on Wednesday. The need at present is for warm, sunny weather.

The stroke of a whale's tail, which can smash even a large boat, is the fiercest blow that can be struck by any animal.

At Dominion Day Celebration

Picture Butte Team Wins Baseball Tournament

The Elks' annual Dominion Day celebration at Vulcan, featuring a four-team baseball tournament, was attended by the largest crowd in some years and proved very successful.

The major share of the prize-money in the ball tournament was won by the strong Picture Butte team, which defeated Vulcan by a close 9-8 score in the final game. Previously, Vulcan had defeated Champion and Picture Butte had defeated Carmangay.

Vulcan 13, Champion 8
Vulcan: Peterson, Berg, Dann, Spach, Kelur, Clarkson, A. Walker, R. Allen Shultz. Vulcan battery: Clarkson, Dann and Kehr.

Champion 9, Picture Butte 8
Champion: Fath, S. Pasoli, L. Pasoli, Siler, Smith, Hagg, Buchanan Rhodes Wolfe. Champion battery: Smith, Pasoli and Hagg.

Picture Butte 3, Carmangay 2
This closely fought game saw the Butte All Stars edge out the hard-hitting Carmangay team. All members of the Picture Butte team but one were Japanese.

Rhodes, Shearer and McLeod formed the Carmangay battery.

Picture Butte 9, Vulcan 8
Vulcan battery: Clarkson, Shultz and Kehr.

Umpire for all games was Corbett of Calgary, with Keith Elder and Ken Loucks as base umpires. Harris Matlock handled the public address system.

Softball
Four teams were entered in the men's softball tournament.

In the first game Alston beat Herrington by a 5-4 score and the second game saw Vulcan trim Berrywater by a 6-1 score.

The final game between Alston and Vulcan failed to determine a winner. The teams were still tied at the end of 12 innings, and split first and second money.

Horseshoes
Four teams entered the horseshoe tournament. In the first division, Orville Lerohl and Jack Phillips were the winners and top men in the second division were Mel Eamom and Winter Speer.

A complete program of children's sports was held and airplane merry-go-round and free treats made it a good day for the children.

Name Candidates County "Princess"

Two more candidates for the title of County Fair Princess have been announced this week. They are Linda Lucas of Armada, who will represent the Lomond-Armada part of the County, and Frances Versluis of Champion, who will represent the Champion-Carmangay district.

Marjorie Kurtz of Kirkcaldy was named last week to represent the Vulcan-Kirkcaldy-Alston district.

Candidates for the Brant-Ensign and Arrowwood-Mossleigh districts have not yet been selected. The candidates must be under 12 years of age and the number of votes received will determine the winner of the County Princess contest.

Vulcan Swimmers At Lethbridge Aquatic School

Miss Ruth Nicol and Ralph Buehler, both of Vulcan, are among the 50 candidates from 19 Alberta points who are attending the Aquatic School in the Lethbridge Civic Centre, July 2 to 7. The school is being conducted by the Swimming and Water Safety Division of the Alberta Red Cross Society.

R. C. Bishop, Director of Red Cross Swimming and Water Safety in Alberta, will conduct the classes with the assistance of Bus Murdoch, recreation director at the Civic Centre.

The students, already good swimmers, will be given an intensive course in teaching swimmers from beginners to advance and also the manner in which water safety knowledge is transmitted. On completion of their course, they will be given teacher awards as accredited Red Cross swimming instructors, and will be capable of carrying on the Red Cross aquatic programs in their home areas.

Concluding the school, a special light craft demonstration open to the public will be held July 7 from 11 a.m. to 12 noon at Henderson Lake.

Take Officers' Training Course At Camp Borden

Lyle Sales and Gordon Brown members of "A" Company, Calgary Highlanders (Reserve Army) left this week for Camp Borden where they will take a six months officers' training course.

The two young men will have the rank of Officer-Cadet while training, and successful completion of the course will qualify them in the rank of 2nd Lieutenant.

They have both been active in the local reserve army unit since it was re-organized last fall.

Regular parades of the unit have been discontinued for the summer and will be resumed after harvest.

Smarty—Do you know, Marty, that they don't hang men with wooden legs in China?
Marty—Zat so, why.
Smarty—They use rope.

An English cub reporter, frequently reprimanded for relating too many details and warned to be brief, turned in the following:

"A shooting affair occurred last night. Sir Dwight Hopeless, a guest at Lady Penmore's ball, complained of feeling ill, took a highball, his hat, his coat, his departure, no notice of friends, a taxi, a pistol from his pocket and finally his life. Nice chap. Regrets and all that sort of thing."

TRAINING NAVAL GUNNERS ON LAND

On the steep, seaside slope at Wembury Range, near the entrance to Plymouth Harbor, the British Navy has laid out guns, control bridges, directors and radar equipment in a way which makes naval cadets feel they are aboard a battleship.

During the last war Wembury was vital as a training centre for naval gunners and merchant navy gun crews, and since then latest developments in radar and its application to naval gunnery have been put into use there. Junior ratings, like these manning twin four-inch guns, get their first firing experience there and attend refresher and promotion courses for apprentices and ordnance artificers.

THIS AND THAT BY V.A.C.

This week, in Canada and in the United States, we are celebrating patriotic holidays. July 1st in Canada, and July 4th in the U.S.A., are days when we should think about the flag of our country. The following poem tells in poetry what meaning the red, white and blue of the flag may have.

THE FLAG

What is the blue of our flag, boys?
The waves of the boundless sea,
Where our vessels ride in their
tameless pride
And the feet of the winds are free,
From the sun and the smiles of the coral isles
To the ice of the south and north,
With dauntless tread through
tempests dread,
The guardian ships go forth.

What is the white of the flag, boys?
The honor of our land,
Which burns in our sight like a beacon light
And stands while the hills shall stand,
Yes, dearer than fame is our
land's great name,
And we fight, wherever we be,
For the mothers and wives that pray for the lives
Of the brave hearts over the sea.

What is the red of the flag, boys?
The blood of the heroes slain
On the burning sands in the wild
waste lands,
And the froth of the purple
main;
And the cries to God from the
crimsoned sod
And the crest of the waves out-rolled
That He send us men to fight again
As our fathers fought of old.

Many people like to play baseball, many more like to watch it played, and a few are even inspired to write poetry about it. One such person was T. A. Daly, who wrote the following amusing piece:

Da Greta Basaball
Oh, greta game ees basaball
For younga 'Merican,
Eut, oh! my frand, ees not at all
Da theeng for Dagoman.
Oh, less'en pleass, I tal to you
About wan game we play
W'en grass ees green, and sky
ees blue,
An' eet ees holiday.

Spagatti say, "We taka treeep
For play da ball, an' see
Wheech side ees ween da champ-asheep
For Leetle Eetaly."
So off for Polo Groun' we go
Weeth basaball an' bat,
An' start da greta game, but, oh,
Eet ees no feenish yay!

Spolatro ees da boss for side
Dat wait for catch da ball:
Spagatti nine ees first dat tried
For knock eet over wall,
An' so Spagatti com' for bat.
Aha! da greta man,
So beeg, so fat! da han's he gat
Ees like two banch banan'.

Spolatro peetch da ball, an' dere
Spagatti's bat ees sweeg,
An' queech da ball up een da air
Ees fly like anytheeng.
You know een deesa game ees man
Dat's call da "lafta-field."
Wal, dees man keep peanutta
stan'
An' like for seetin' steell;

An' dough dees ball Spagatti heet
Ees passa by hees way,
He don'ta care a leetla beet
Eef eet ees gon' all day.
Da "centra-felda man"—you know
Dats next to heem—he call;
"Hi! why you don'ta jompa, Joe,
An' run an' gat da ball!"

But Joe hee justa seeta steel
Teell ball ees outa sight,
Dees mak' so mad da centra-fiel'
He ees baygeen to fight.
Den com'sa nudder man—you see,
I don'ta know hees name,
Or how you call dees man, but he
Ees beeg man een da game.

He ees da man dat mak' da rule
For play da gama right;
An' so he com' to dose two fool
Out in da fiel' dat fight;
He push da centra-felda 'way—
An' soocha names he call—
An' den he grabba Joe an' say,
"Com', run an' gat da ball!"

But Joe ees growl an' tal heem:
"No,
Ees not for me at all,
Spagatti heet da ball, an' so
Spagatti gat da ball!"

Oh, greta game ees basaball
For younga 'Merican,
But, oh! my frand, ees not at all
Da theeng for Dagoman.

With The District Agriculturist Hugh Michael

Dehorning Available

A Keystone and a Barnes dehorner are available at your local District Agriculturist's office. These dehorners are for loan without charge to anyone who requires their use. They were supplied by the Livestock Branch of the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

Mr. W. H. T. Mead, Livestock Commissioner, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture points out that the producer selling a horned animal is not only losing the dollar assessed as horn penalty. He loses considerably more than that as a result of other losses that apply to the industry as a whole. These include losses due to bruising, downers and death during shipment, and losses in feedlots by horned cattle causing a continuous disturbance. Most important of all is that buyers generally pay less for horned cattle to cover the risks involved during shipment.

The market for unfinished cattle is provided by those people who make a business of cattle finishing. The feeder is always subject to risk and anything that can be done to reduce this risk increases the value of our cattle. Some feeders will not even bid on horned cattle unless they can be bought at a bargain price. It is definitely erroneous to believe that the only penalty against horned cattle is the one dollar deduction established by the Horned Cattle Act.

Know Poisonous Weeds

A farmer from the Granum district recently called at this office concerning a plant found growing in pasture land. He brought several specimens of the plant with him. This plant was found to be Death Camas, sometimes called mystery grass, as the latter name signifies, it is a grass-like plant closely resembling the wild onion. However, it differs from the wild onion in several features, first it does not have an onion smell, second the flowers are greenish-yellow, the flowers of the wild onion are white, a pinkish white. Third, the flowers of the wild onion grow out from one point at the top of the flower stem, whereas in Death Camas, the flowers grow from different points along the upper end of the flower-stem.

All parts of the Death Camas are poisonous, especially the bulb. Sheep are usually the only stock poisoned by Death Camas. The above mentioned farmer from Granum claims to have lost three head of cattle from it.

A very good guide to poisonous weeds found in Alberta is available free of charge at this office, anyone interested in obtaining a copy may do so by writing or calling.

Improving The Quality Of Hay

There is a great need for improvement in the quality of hay grown. In the past, bulk has been the major consideration, with quality receiving very little of the attention it deserves. More often than not, hay cutting is delayed to obtain the maximum tonnage. When this is the case, fibre content is increased, digestibility is reduced as well as palatability.

Cutting at the optimum time, means early cutting for many. Brome and crested wheat should be cut at the early heading stage, timothy when in blossom and red top when fully headed. Alfalfa is ready when it is just commencing to bloom, and sweet clover when in the bud stage. When a mixture of a grass and legume is grown, the best time to cut is when the predominant legume is in the right stage.

It has long been known that early in the season fibre content of the hay plants is low and the protein high. As the season advances, the fibre increases and the protein decreases. When the hay crop is cut early, more leaves are saved, when cutting is delayed, many of the lower leaves dry up and are lost. Leaves are one of the most valuable parts of the hay crop.

Careful curing of the hay is the second step in improving the quality. The bleaching of hay by sun and winds results in a loss of vitamins, and there is a loss of minerals in bleaching by rain. Hays spread in the swath may thus lose two important essentials in animal nutrition.

Hay crops such as alfalfa or the short grasses must be cut with the mower, but where a side delivery rake is used, it can be put into light windrows at an early stage. If the dump rake is used, the hay must be given a little longer period to dry, and the windrows should be comparatively small. Raking at the earliest possible time will help to save the leaves.

PARENTAL AXE MUST FALL ON TOOTH-DESTROYING DIETS

Mouth cleanliness, too, plays a major role in preventive dental health, says Dr. Bilkey. Many of the foods which we eat, of necessity contain free sugars as well as starches. Thus a thorough tooth brushing and mouth rinsing as soon as possible after eating anything will help to continue to eliminate danger from residual food substances.

In addition to dietary control and thorough cleansing, the Health League magazine urges early dental supervision for children, starting ing at the age of two and a half or three years, and "complete revision of our appreciation of the importance of the primary teeth, attaching at least the same importance, and preferably more, to these teeth than we do to our own."

There are two kinds of diet, so far as teeth are concerned—the formative and the destructive. According to Dr. E. R. W. Bilkey, writing in Health magazine, the destructive category is the one in which all candies and other sweet treats must fall.

The Toronto authority on pedodontics explained it this way: "Sugary substances when acted upon by certain bacteria in the mouth, cause the saliva in the localized areas around the teeth to become much more acidic in nature. Acid in turn can, and does, cause a breakdown of the enamel outer wall of the tooth. In this greatly weakened condition the teeth are easy prey to dental decay; and hence in many mouths thus abused a great many cavities can usually be found."

Farewell Party
A farewell party was held on Wednesday, June 27 in the Legion Hall in honor of one of the first pioneers of the district, Austin Brown, who is retiring to Calgary.

Cards and a sing song were enjoyed. Mr. Brown was presented with two blankets. Stanley Brown made the presentation. A lovely lunch was served by the ladies.

Mr. Brown came to Queenstown with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown from Scotland in 1889. They started in farming the following year, but after four years of drouth they gave it up and tried ranching with better success, until the fall of 1905, when a prairie fire swept through from the north-west, burning all the pasture and haystacks. The winter of 1906 and 1907 was one of the worst winters this district ever experienced, and being short of feed after the prairie fire, their cattle suffered greatly, piling up in heaps and freezing to death. By spring they had 150 head left out of 700.

In 1906 and 07, the settlers started to come in, they were also hard hit. That same year the Browns opened a store, lumber yard and post office, driving to Gleichen in a lumber wagon for supplies.

After a few years they gave the store up and started in farming again. There place was known as the Arbuthnot Ranch. Another son Dave, who carried on after the death of his father in 1921, sold out in 1949 and is living with two sisters in Calgary.

THE ADVOCATE

Modern Equipment is Vital Factor In Full Scale Farm Production

Canada's agriculture is highly productive. And one of the greatest assets that a nation can have, particularly in these troubled times, is a highly productive agriculture. Our national economy, our industrial production, the health of our people and our security, benefit greatly from the ability of our agriculture to produce great quantities of essential foods.

That Canada's agriculture produces more food than ever before with comparatively less manpower is due to the practical application of scientific developments and the effective use of modern power farming equipment.

Through continuous engineering developments, Massey-Harris has helped make available today tractors, combines and power machines to keep our farms operating at peak efficiency. From your local Massey-Harris dealer get full particulars of the latest in time-saving, labour-saving equipment.

W. L.

The Champion branch of the Women's Institute assembled at the home of Mrs. Ernest Rhodes, Tuesday, June 26, owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. F. Little, and the secretary, Mrs. M. Sisson, their offices were filled, for the meeting by Mrs. E. Knudson and Mrs. Guy Voisey, pro tem.

There was a good attendance. Twenty-five dollars was voted to the Village to assist with expenses, incurred in travelling the streets.

One hundred dollars was voted toward the establishment of the public library when it becomes a certainty.

Mrs. G. Voisey gave a very complete report on the annual W.I. Provincial Conference held in Edmonton recently. Mrs. Voisey represented the local branch of the Institute.

Mrs. R. Macleod reported that the Junior Book, Jolly Time Girl's Club, would discontinue meetings

A Favorite Recipe--

Hot Weather Drink

6 lemons, juice and grated rind
4 lbs. white sugar
2 oz. citric acid
1 oz. tartaric acid
2 tbsps. epsom salts
2 qts. boiling water
Mix all together adding the boiling water last. Set aside to cool. When just warm, strain and bottle. To serve, put about 1½ inches of syrup in glass and fill with ice cold water.

Uncooked Salad Dressing

2 eggs, beaten until light
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. dry mustard
½ can condensed milk
½ cup vinegar

Beat the first four ingredients hard for a few minutes, then, add the vinegar and mix well. Set aside for a few hours to thicken. This dressing keeps quite well.

CARD OF THANKS

The Lions Club of Champion wish to extend their thanks to all the gravel haulers who donated their time and trucks to gravel Champion streets. Also, to all others who assisted in any way. Thanks follows for the co-operation.

Johnson-Cross

A wedding of interest to a large circle of Carmangay people was solemnized at the Southminster church, Lethbridge, on June 2.

The Rev. Nelson Mercer united in marriage Vivian Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Robert Cross, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Cross, all of Carmangay.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white satin floor length gown, with lace yoke and lace bodice inserts. Her finger-ring veil was held in place by a coronet headress. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Miss Carol Johnson, sister of the bride, attended as bridesmaid, attired in a long gown of yellow taffeta, carrying pink and white carnations.

Harvey Cross attended his brother as best man and the ushers were John Knox and Paul Plourd.

A reception was held at the Rose Room of the Club Cafe when Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Cross assisted the bridal couple in receiving the guests. Mrs. Johnson chose a grey ensemble with blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses, while Mrs. Cross wore a grey dressmaker suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. H. Fykes proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded.

Among the guests was Mrs. J. Maloney of Toppenish, Wash.

Before leaving on a honeymoon to be spent at Sylvan Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Tiny Cross entertained their friends at a dance in the Community Hall.

They will make their home in Carmangay.

The Explorer's Group

The Explorer's Group was formed last fall under the leadership of Audrey Burns. Girls joined with a very interesting and worthwhile year being spent.

For their missionary study their topic was "Japan."

For this they dressed in Japanese costumes, played Japanese games, and enjoyed a Japanese meal, which consisted of rice, peas and salmon with lime pop, representing green tea. After supper the girls made plans for their overnight hike. The doll house was drawn for and won by Loree Hauser.

On April 28 the girls enjoyed an outdoor exploration and hike down to the river. On their hike they explored the hills and river banks, examining flowers and many odd things were found. While supper was being prepared the girls played games under the leadership of Joan White. A campfire was held and the evening closed with a short vesper service.

The Explorers program for the year closed with a weekend spent at the home of their leader, when hikes, lunches, a campfire and a candle lighting ceremony was held. Saturday's events closed with a masquerade party.

HOUSEHOLD INSECTS.

Good housekeeping and long-lasting, residual insecticides are the best protection against damage from clothes moths and carpet beetles.

Both these insects attack woolen goods and other fabrics of animal origin, but it appears carpet beetles may be the most injurious under Canadian conditions.

Good housekeeping practices should include the use of a vacuum cleaner on rugs, upholstered furniture, and cracks in flooring. Insecticides, such as five per cent DDT, applied in a coarse spray or by means of a paint brush will provide protection for several months.

Mothballs and naphthalene flakes are not repellents, so are effective only when confined with woollens in a tightly-closed, practically air-tight space where their vapours will be retained. The average clothes closet will not retain their vapours sufficiently.

MAJORVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch left Thursday for Red Deer where they will be the guests of John's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Yule. The purpose of the visit north is to take part in the Aberdeen Angus breeders tour of ranches in the Lacombe area.

Excitement ran high in our little hamlet last Saturday when it was known a big drilling derrick was headed for the L. K. hay pasture to start drilling for oil. However, when the boss man couldn't find the stakes a telegram to and a reply from head office revealed the fact the drillers were some 60 miles from their objective, township 9 and 19 being mixed up in the instructions. So it isn't only the weather that seems to be confused this year.

Fred Bertschy spent last week in Edmonton attending the hospital board's conference.

Mrs. G. Heather was a Cluny visitor lately, to help her daughter, Mrs. D. Gordon, who has moved to Calgary to reside, pack her belongings. Mrs. C. Umschied and Mrs. Burke accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Dietz and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dietz spent a few days recently in Great Falls, Montana.

L. Monner, C. Umschied and G. Heather took a trip to Fernie, B. C. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Stapleton of Tacoma, Wash. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Nooy, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Nooy for a few days recently.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stan Godkin on the birth of a son in Bassano on the 29th.

Vulcan is getting to be quite a popular town hereabouts. Hardly a day goes by but someone goes over either to shop, or as last week to pay the taxes. Wonder if "County Seat" derived from "Counting Seat." Among those going there lately were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bertschy and Irene, Mrs. Bob Deitz.

With The District Agriculturist

Hugh Michael

This Weed Killer is

Cattle Menace

A weed killer, sodium chlorate, carelessly left so that cattle found their way to it, has killed $3,000 worth of cattle recently, according to Dr. E. E. Ballantyne, Director of Veterinary Services of the Department of Agriculture.

In the Lindberg area, six head of cattle died suddenly after eating sodium chlorate from an open drum. Autopsy by the Veterinary Services Branch revealed heavy concentration of sodium chlorate. Two of the cattle died almost immediately, and four others a week later. Several other cattle were seriously ill from the poison.

Dr. Ballantyne advised great caution in the use of poisons. They should be left where children and animals cannot reach them. If livestock is poisoned, oily laxatives such as raw linseed oil and mineral oil provide emergency treatment, but a veterinarian should be called immediately.

Poor Sweet Clover Stands Not All Due to Weevils

W. Lobay, Supervisor of Crop Protection, says that although weevils have caused considerable damage to sweet clover crops this spring, root rotting soil organisms are also doing their share. In some fields where there were good stands last fall, only scattered patches of sweet clover remain.

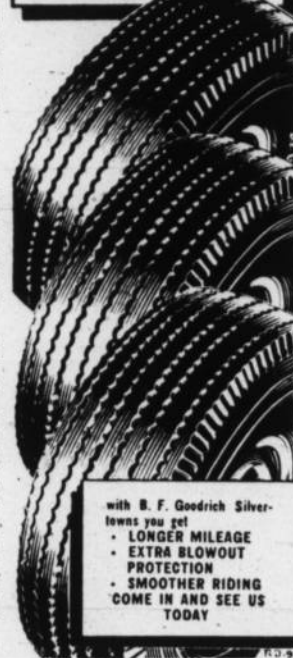

On examination, it will likely be found that at least some of these plants are rotting off from one to three inches below the soil surface. With comparatively few sweet clover plants in such fields, the weevils concentrate on them.

Before spraying for weevil control, farmers are advised to check their fields carefully. If much rotting of the below-ground portion of the stem is found, the main damage may be due to rot rather than weevils. In such cases spraying will not save the crop.

Moisture and temperature conditions have favoured development of sweet clover root rot this spring, advises Mr. Lobay, but these conditions may not occur again for many years. The fact that the root rot occurred this year has no bearing on what may happen next year. It should be realized that a repetition of this year's losses is unlikely in 1952, and that it will be unwise to discontinue growing sweet clover because of such losses.
